

Building Envelope Consultants and Scientists, LLC.

Working at Height: Fall Protection Policies and Regulations

Credit Designations: 1.5 HSW Credits

Course Description:

Please Building Envelope Consultants and Scientists, LLC to review the applicable codes and standards implemented by OSHA, ASME, and ANSI regarding fall protection, the policies and procedures of fall protection programs, and the design requirements and inspection & maintenance requirements of those programs.

Learning Objective 1: Participants will learn and understand updated and existing standards and codes regarding fall protection.

Learning Objective 2: Participants will learn the different elevated work area definitions and how to identify each.

Learning Objective 3: Participants will learn policies and procedures of proper fall protection programs.

Learning Objective 4: Participants will understand the variety of responsibilities of proper fall protection programs.

Learning Objective 5: Participants will be able to identify and eliminate potential building fall hazards.

Learning Objective 6: Participants will learn basic design requirements and system options of fall protection programs.

Learning Objective 7: Participants will learn inspection and maintenance requirements of fall protection programs.

